INTR ASS.

*We cried on our first day,
And again on our last.
We groaned at its' arrival,
But moaned when it past.
We counted the days
'till we would be free,
Well now here it is
And I don't want it to be.
Where will we go?
What will we do?
It all happened so fast
Right out of the blue.
What about friends
We've made year after year,
Now that school's over
Do they just disappear?
Of course we'll have memories
To look back on and smile,
And we'll use what we've learned –
Well at least for a while.
But now in the year
Of seventy-eight,
Like the classes before us
Ours must graduate.*

WEYMANA, WEYMOUTH – FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1977

*Tw'as Friday, the Thirteenth,
 The day of the Prom.
 Not a thing had gone right,
 And still more could go wrong.
 While we sat at the Ridge,
 Not once did I think,
 That all over my dress,
 I would soon spill my drink.
 The car that we rented,
 Which cost quite a bit,
 Was bumped at the red light,
 And my date took a fit.
 We finally arrived,
 Our heads in a spin,
 But our ticket was home,
 So we could not get in.
 At this point of the night,
 What more could go wrong —
 Well they stepped on the record,
 And ruined the theme song.
 We danced until midnight,
 Some fast and some slow,
 But when the music had ended,
 We did not want to go.
 We'll remember that night,
 For the rest of our days,
 Because we had a great time —
 In one or more ways!*

K. Lewis

A Day To Be Treasured

*We dressed in our finest
And left right on time,
A day to be treasured
Always in our mind.*

*A corsage of light blue
Was pinned to my dress,
While the matching carnation
Was where you would guess.*

*Our pictures were taken
At his house and mine,
Then off to Weymana
Where we were to dine.*

*We danced until midnight,
The band playing great,
Then they played the theme song
Just for me and my date.*

*An evening so filled
Of good times and laughter,
Will always be thought of
For years to come after.*

K. Lewis

WAMP WEEK

The week of October 17th to the 22nd was Wamp Week which led up to the Homecoming Game with Dedham. Wamp Week is a time when everyone can come together in spirit to release the energy of competition. It's a time to let off a little steam after the crush of the fall assignments. It's also a time to act a little crazy and get away with it; after all, who asks an Indian for a hall pass?

The activities began on Monday, which was crazy hat day. Students and faculty donned their favorite chapeaus. Everything from Mexican sombreros to top hats were seen passing through the labyrinth of the school on spirited B.H.S. bodies.

Tuesday was dress-up day on which the students dressed up in their best threads and the teachers dressed down in their worst rags. Among the featured fashions was a pink and white evening gown worn by Tina Chaisson. Sporting his latest three piece Brooks Brothers suit was Brian Smith. Carlton Storms, not to be out-done, displayed his authentic llama skin vest with matching torn t-shirt and pants.

Wednesday was Lumberjack Day on which Braintree prepared to "split Dedham in half." Among the tree toppers were Richard "Sven" Larson and "Pierre" M. N. Dola, who roamed the school grounds in search of the biggest sap.

Thursday was "Class Colors Day," when each class wore their own color. The freshmen wore red, the sophomores green, the juniors brown and the seniors blue. Smartly dressed Dolores Varrasso truly had the blues when she appeared in a blue suit, cape, gloves shoes and hat.

Students arriving at school Friday sighted Indians from the Wampanoag tribe crossing the mighty Sunset in their birchbark canoes. When the Wamps arrived in school they were greeted by the students and faculty dressed in blue and white. Later in the day the chief of the Wampanoags, portrayed by Chris Preston, and the tribes' medicine man made an appearance at the school.

Spirit chains were constructed representing each classes color. The senior class was victorious in the end with the longest chain.
The school day was ended with a pep rally featuring the B.H.S. Band, Cheerleaders, Majorettes, Pep Squad and Football Teams.

Saturdays homecoming game began with a parade down Washington Street ending at the Hollis playing field. The theme of the senior float was "DARKNESS OVER DEDHAM, BRIGHTNESS OVER BRAINTREE". On the float was Melissa Dembro and Tina Chaisson in their bee outfits along with Shelia Callahan who lit up our lives as the sun. Sue Royce, Dolores Varasso and Jane Curtin as football players and Cindy Crooks dressed as a sunflower. Ann Bregoli drove her bug to emphasize the point that Dedham really bugs us.

MAUREEN

Saturday night's Homecoming Dance ended Wamp Week with dancing music provided by "RARE PLEASURE" featuring guest vocalists Lisa Sorenson and Nella Townsend. Excitement and anticipation were at a high peak when Maureen O'Leary was announced as the 1977 Homecoming Queen. When the dance was officially over everyone was off to still more excitement where the lights in the night spots of Norfolk County burned late into the evening.

The 1977 fall play "My Sister Eileen" proved to be another great show by the B.H.S. Drama Club. Donna Santackas as the title role was the sophisticated and beautiful Eileen. Other outstanding senior players were Leo Harrington, Rich Repetta, David Schaefer, Richard Pickering, Dean Giles and exchange student Jan Nielsson. The "Conga Line" was probably the most fun part in the play, when the audience joined in dancing around the auditorium with the Panamian Saliors.

#

The Braintree High Annual Winter Concert was a great success. The Band, Orchestra, Concert Choir, and Madrigal Singers performed to a full house of over 385 townspeople. All the groups worked many long hours and should be commended for an outstanding performance. A highlight of the evening was listening to a special Christmas song written by our own custodian Mr. Peter Hurlburt.

DO IT AGAIN SANTA

Keeping with our yearly tradition, the students and faculty of Braintree High worked extremely hard to help make the Christmas of others happy. A deluge of gifts were collected and brought to the pit where various members of the Student Government and Key Club, along with countless other volunteers wrapped them. When the week before Christmas finally arrived, a spectacular heap of gifts adorned the pit. All that was left to do was to let Jolly ol' Saint Nick (portrayed by Mark Gallivan) deliver them to the various underprivileged homes and youth hostiles.

It is the fond hope of this year's senior class along with Mr. Grant, that future classes will carry on "Operation Santa Claus" in future years and share the Christmas spirit with others.

The Red Cross Blood Mobile came to Braintree High's dance room on Friday, December 16, 1977. Approximately 80 people came to give blood, the majority of which were seniors. Future Medical Club members were on hand to type, to take temperatures, to assist the nurses, and to serve refreshments. The event was planned and organized by Student Government.

BRAENTREE

On December 20, 1977, preceding the B.H.S.—Dedham basketball game, the B.H.S. gymnasium was dedicated in honor of Frederick Herget, Director of Physical Education and Athletics. Mr. Herget was a basketball coach at B.H.S. from 1953 to 1970. In 1977 he was chosen as a member of the Basketball Coaches' Hall of Fame.

RECORD YEAR

PLAZA TOPS ITSELF

The Plaza being enclosed was one of the many bigger steps for a more efficient Community by Braintree in the year 1978. It meant warmth in running from store to store. With the plaza being climate controlled, you can shop in comfort and this means easier shopping for the many people in the surrounding suburbs. Many art shows, displays, music shows, plays, and other demonstrations now come to the plaza.

A substantial movement toward a better transportation system for the suburbs surrounding Braintree, was to construct the MBTA Red line. The trains will not only provide a more efficient and convenient way to move around, but also will give shoppers the opportunity to visit South Shore Plaza without the hassle of paying parking fees and finding parking spaces. The new transportation access will also lessen the "rush hour" traffic on the Southeast expressway.

Although the 77-78 Braintree High Football team did not win as much as they had wished, their team spirit and athletic excellence made up for it. Led by co-captains Frank Curtis and Chris O'Neil, the Wamps went on to a 2-win season.

The team will be remembered for their drive and exuberance. Coach McAllister should be commended for his great leadership in coaching in this building year for the Wamps.

The 77-78 football year will go down as a truly spirited year- Good Job Wamps!

In the post season play, the team finished second in the South Sectional Volleyball Tournament, losing to first place Taunton High School in very close games.

Throughout the season, all members of the team performed well, but special mention should be given to Robyn Bekerian, Kim Barba (who was chosen as this year's all-star), Linda Muello, and Joanne Fulton. All these players offered consistent and outstanding play throughout.

The girls practiced many hours, and together they presented a fine team effort.*

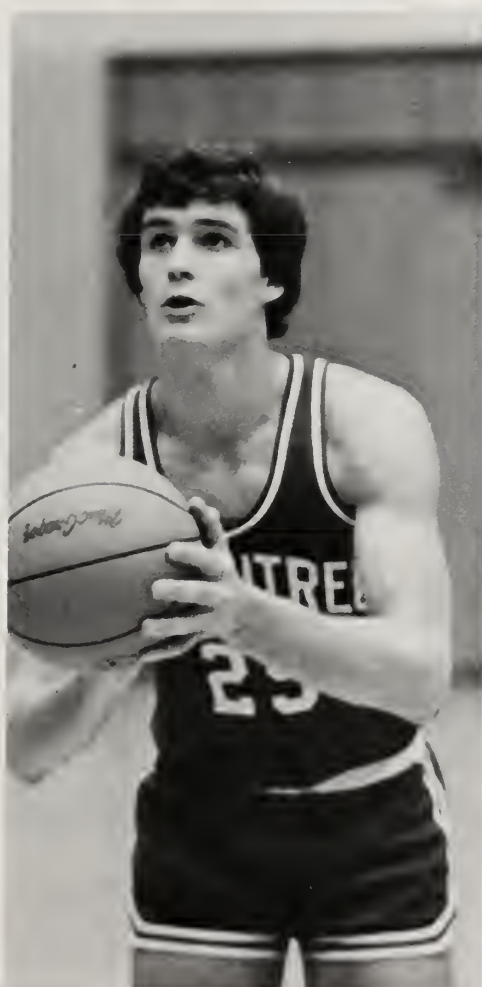

*Coached by Dave Crook, The 1977-78 Basketball team rallied after a slow start to finish their season with 8 wins and 9 losses for a fourth place finish in the Bay State League. The first half of the season was plagued by one and two point losses. ## WRESTLING

This year's Wrestling team bounced back from a 0-10 record of last year to a respectable 9 wins-3 losses, and a third place finish in the Bay State league.

Jim Avitable, a senior, posted an outstanding personal record of 12 wins and 1 loss in the 121 lb. weight class which was good enough for a second place seed in the Division 1 South Regional Tournament. Paul Freeley contributed the early leadership of this young team. Mark Newell, another senior showed much promise in his first Varsity Wrestling venture. Stephen Pedretti helped considerably especially in the Dedham match with a fine victory at the 167 lb. weight class. Ed Bonner who was steady all year long, showed a lot of heart as he always had, and wrestled someone heavier than himself. Finally our big heavy weight Ken McDonnell finished the season with a 7-2-1 record and a third place seed in the Regional Tournament. Senior David Asnes, injured during the season, contributed a great deal of team loyalty and spirit to make the 1977-1978 season a great success.

The 1977-78 Boys' Gymnastics team has done a great job this year despite their first and only loss in 8 years. This year's team was headed by the three seniors Dan McGrath, Mike Moscone (co-captains) and John McNamara. They were strongly backed up by the underclassmen. Efforts by the McKenney brothers, Tom Hagman, and the Murphy brothers, just to name a few, were a great help in pushing the team to such a fine standing. Next year's season promises to be just as good or even better with the fine talent developing in the underclassmen.

This year's Girl's Gymnastics team had a super season. Led by Co-captains Mary Morrissey and Loraine Caldwell, as well as by other seniors Jill Whitten, Blanche Climo, and Laura Mischler, the team won its Seventh Consecutive Bay State League Championship. Marsha McNevin, an outstanding freshman, won the Bay State League All-Around title. Loraine Caldwell placed fourth in the League Championship for her performance on the balance beam.

The 1978 Wampatuck Yearbook is presented to you proudly by the "78" Staff. Under the supervision of Mr. Theodore P. Ek, the staff had the opportunity to learn different techniques in art layout, using the I.B.M. composer, rubylithing windows, selling the book as well as ads, and using the graphic camera to make direct line positive stats. The staff also had a chance to learn about the various career opportunities offered in publication and art. It was a different experience having to set up a budget and then having to create a way to raise the entire sum of money that it took to pay all the bills. Everyone worked hard to meet the many deadlines. We hope this book will be a lasting and meaningful memento of your years at B.H.S.

On February 6th and 7th, a blizzard with hurricane force winds wracked New England depositing approximately 36 inches or more of snow and packing gusts of wind of more than 60 miles per hour. The storm paralyzed highway traffic and caused extensive coastal flooding.

Massachusetts National Guard was called to aid in snow removal. Sixty-two armories in the state opened for use of emergency shelters. A state of emergency was declared by the governor and driving was banned except for emergency vehicles. Schools were closed and all business were closed except for food stores. One of the major troubled spots was Route 128 where 4000 cars and trucks were stalled and snow bound.

Although the schools were closed, learning took place in the form of practical experience and relating to others in an emergency situation.
